W.P.A. 16088 of 2004
Ganesh Steel & Alloys Ltd.
Vs.
The W.B. State Electricity Board
(Via Video Conference)

Mr. S.S. Koley M. Hassan ...For the Respondent WBSEDCL

None appears on behalf of the petitioner at the time of call. No accommodation has been prayed for either. The Licensing Company is represented through its learned Advocate.

Mr. Koley, learned Advocate submits that the writ petition has become infructuous due to passage of time.

Since the writ petitioner is un-represented, W.P.A. 16088 of 2004 stands dismissed for default.

The interim order, if any, stands vacated.
